FAMILY, FUN AND FELLOWSHIP

It was great seeing everyone at our stated meeting in September. We enjoyed the food the A-team prepared and discussed a lot of great opportunities our Shrine has available in the coming months, including partnering with the Grand Lodge of Ohio for some updated membership sharing. We also had a great report by Robin Hoffman and the family of John Hoffman, our first chairman of the now named John Hoffman Memorial Golf Outing. We raised a lot of money for our charities and connected with the community in a meaningful way. Everyone who attended had Fun. The Family of John Hoffman and Tim Martin (our other outing chair) helped organize and make it successful, and our Fraternity benefited with the Fellowship we enjoyed. This has become a great tradition for our Shrine.

Sooney! Sooney! Sooney! Well, we didn't actually hear that during the Divan Ladies pig roast, but the call was heard and attendance was great. Families had fun, the pig races were a hit, and the funds raised for the Shriners Children's Wish List exceeded all expectations. The event was open to the public and we will likely be seeing two new Masons and Shriners soon, due to the fun and family involved.

Our Sportsmen's Extravaganza is proceeding wonderfully, thanks to all of your support and the leadership of Ben Croley, our chairman of the event. By the time you read this, our volunteers will be taking a deserved nap and Ben will be finalizing this year's results. Ben will be retiring from leading the gun raffle after this year, so please thank him for the five years of success our Shrine has enjoyed. If you are interested in taking a bigger part in leading our Sportsmen's Extravaganza, please talk with the Divan who will be happy to assist you.

We will be promoting our Friendship Night at the Sportsmen's Extravaganza. We moved the Friendship Night up to Friday, October 8, from October 15. Please bring your friends and family to our Friendship Night to meet with our Masonic and Shrine potential candidates. The event is open to both candidates and their partners (wives, girlfriends, friends, partners, etc.) so please reserve your seats with the office. A month later on Saturday, November 13, we will be having our Ceremonial. The degree will start at 3 p.m., with a lunch ahead of time. Please get your petitions in ahead of time, so we can plan our activities accordingly. We apologize for the date changes, however changes were necessitated, so please note Friday, October 8, is the Friendship Night and Saturday, November 13, is the Ceremonial.

A big thank you to those that volunteered to sell CDs at the Breaking Benjamin concert at the last moment. Your efforts raised $6,840 for the Shriners Children, with the sale of 342 CDs. While it was short notice, you all came through. Later this month we will be having our Children's Halloween Trunk or Treat, so please bring out your table, costumes and candy for a great time and a way to get our community involved.

Our biggest community involvement is November 18 to 21, for the Zenobia Circus at Seagate. As soon as the Sportsmen's Extravaganza is over, please sign up for volunteering for the circus. We need your help to sell tickets, so please get the word out that the circus is on and there will be great acts including TIGERS!!! Thank you all for being the ambassadors we need for the world's greatest philanthropy (Shriners) and fraternity (Masonry).

Isaac Demarest, Potentate

UNDER THE BIG TOP

Please support the Sportsmen's Extravaganza on Saturday, October 2. Then get ready to enjoy the fantastic family fun of the Zenobia Shrine Circus! It all happens November 18 to 21, at the SeaGate Centre. What is exciting about this is that YOU can be a part of putting smiles on faces.

Our greatest assets are those volunteers who help with the circus. While many work the supportive tasks during the circus, others keep us going with activities surrounding the acts and additional valuable helpers perform support before the circus arrives. We have many new openings for assistance since our last performances. Volunteer now as there is a position that will fit your interests.

New Nobles: This is the best opportunity to be an active contributor to Zenobia. If you have joined our great fraternity in the past few years, there are many options to assist and scheduling is flexible. You can help at a performance or many – it is your choice. Your spouse also is welcome to contribute some time. So make it a "team" effort.

Our positions include standing or sitting, greeting people, handling money, assisting our guests or making sure tables are stocked. There are many variable options which can accommodate your interests. Contact Teri at Zenobia and let her know. Call (419) 661-9200 and get the ball rolling.

It's your move, so let it happen. We welcome you to the circus. Dates: November 18-21, 2021.

The month of September has been very busy, stated meeting, Circus planning meeting, Great Lakes Shrine Association meeting in Chicago. 2022 dues are starting to come in. A great thing is there have been many Sportsmen's raffle tickets to book into the program. We will be ready for the event to happen on Saturday, October 2.

Speaking of the raffle and the Circus, please try to volunteer your time to help with these events. Having been through the virus and not being able to gather, we all have become less willing to get out and join our brothers to help with events. We need to be safe, but if you can, please help us out with events.

Dues for 2022: Shriners International is handling dues notices for all Shrines in North America. This means they are notifying our members. Your 2022 dues are not due until the end of the year, but it is nice to have them early and not have a mad rush around the end of the year holidays. If it is convenient for you to pay your 2022 dues now, please send them in. You may pay by phone, 419-661-9200, or on the website, zenobiashriners.com. Click on "pay dues" at the very top of the web page.

Hope you can make the stated meeting on Thursday, October 14. Please be safe and stay well.

2021 CIRCUS FACTS

What you need to know:

- ALL pre-sold tickets are still good for the day of week performance and time. No need to trade them in, just use them.

- SeaGate has only one entrance into the building. Plan on using the Jefferson Street entrance.

- In spite of the construction at SeaGate, the interior arena will be the same.

- We have lost many key workers since our last circus. Be a valued volunteer. There is something for everyone to contribute; ticket takers, sellers, ushers or distributing programs, to name a few.

- If you are new to Zenobia in last five years, this is a terrific way to become involved. You can volunteer for one performance or several, just give it a try. Spouses are welcome.

- If you want to help, but not comfortable at the circus venue, then help with selling tickets in the weeks prior to the event. We will train you and can be flexible with your schedule. Maybe you can give one day a week for about three weeks!

If you have questions or want to volunteer, call Zenobia at (419) 661-9200. We value you as a volunteer.

Greetings from the Chief Rabban

Greetings Nobles,

What an amazing month it has been! The Ladies’ Divan hog roast was a great event, and all those that attended had a great time. The Firelands Shrine Club also knows how to show great hospitality at their annual steak fry.

Our pilgrimage to GLSA was a fun and informative event. It was great seeing our counterparts and friends from all the other Shrine centers in the Great Lake’s region after a long hiatus. Speaking of seeing all our friends. Zenobia’s first stated meeting back after the summer break was a great time. The food and fellowship before the meeting was cheerful and bright. The meeting was informative and the fun continued long after the meeting was over.

As we begin this fall season, gathering with friends and family around a fire, sipping on some delicious warm cider and gathering pumpkins. We can continue the fun with our annual trunk or treat and our adult Halloween party. Both events are a blast and fun for all ages. Keep an eye out in the Hadji for all the info.

Nobles, as the year of 2021 is slowly coming to a close, let’s remember that our clubs and units will all be holding elections for the year 2022. Maybe this is your time to do a little more for your club and units by stepping in as an officer. Zenobia also is looking to fill some key positions for the year 2022. Please contact myself or your club and unit officers to see what you can do. Even a small role will have a big impact with our fraternity. We are all brother Masons and will support each other to the fullest.

Until next time, keep a warm heart and big smile.

THANKS TO SPORTS MEDICINE AT SHRINERS CHILDREN'S CHICAGO, JESSICA IS BACK IN THE GAME

Jessica signed a letter of intent to play softball at Ball State University.

Jessica is a talented athlete who hoped for a bright future in competitive softball. A knee injury took her off the field for almost a year. After a collision during a softball game, Jessica's mom, Kimberly, made an appointment with Chicago Shriners Hospital's sports medicine specialists. The program offers a team approach of pediatric orthopaedic surgeons, on-site physical therapy and return-to-sports testing in the Gerald Harris Motion Analysis Center. Jessica relied on Shriners' team of sports medicine specialists to help her return to sport with a knee that is strong enough to compete safely again.

Kelsey Davidson, M.D., leads the sports medicine clinic at Shriners Chicago. Jessica had arthroscopic same-day surgery using a patellar tendon graft of her own tissue. After the surgery, Jessica worked one-on-one with a physical therapist on-site at the Chicago Shriners Hospital.

Jessica's family is very happy with her results. "After our first meeting with Dr. Davidson, we knew that this was where our daughter needed to be," said Kimberly. "Dr. Davidson always had Jessica's best interest in mind and wanted to ensure that she was adequately prepared to return to play."

1993 A Team celebrates 28th annual Reunion – seated: Karen Kennedy, Dorothy Welniak, Bernie Welniak P.P. (93) and Gloria Mucci; standing: Joe Vedra, Dave Kennedy, Dennis Gable P.P. (13), Joan Gable, Roni Lawrence and Ruth Price. Ruth and Dennis won the $25 gift certificates to the Whitehouse Inn.

Two great minds.

Highlanders as the featured unit for September!

Hillbilly Notes

A great big Hillbilly “HOWDY” ta all my Cuzzins and you “Flatlanders” out there!!

What kind of weather do you like? I guess that September covered all the bases! Hot - cold - dry - wet - calm - windy - cloudy - sunny - yep that was what September brought us!

Since our last reporting, on August 7 we went to the Swanton Corn Fest for their parade.

On August 15 we traveled to Napoleon’s Tomato Festival parade.

We were registered for the Tiffin Heritage Fest, but after a lot of back and forth they ended up canceling their parade.

We had two more in September – Clyde on the 18th, and Waterville on the 25th.

We have one more on our fall schedule – Oak Harbor on Saturday, October 9.

We do not have any scheduled for November or December, yet! I have been reaching out, but so far no success.

We had our first regular meeting on September 3. With that being the beginning of the Labor Day weekend, I did not know how many cuzzins would be in attendance! We ended up with 14, which is not too bad for all that was going on!

Other than normal business, we talked a little on the upcoming election of new officers and discussed the International Hillbilly Convention that took place in Ashland, Kentucky.

Our next Clan #75 meeting will be Friday, October 1, at Charly’s Taverna, just off Reynolds Road. We meet at 5:30, and eat at 6:00.

International Hillbilly Convention? Yep! Thirteen of the cuzzins traveled down to Ashland, Kentucky, on August 18 to 22. What a bunch of HILL-BILLYS! They were from all over, not just Ohio, but many many states! Clan #1 hosted the event, and everything WAS planned! As with all events, everything did not go as planned!

Overall everyone had a good time! Next year, Clan #55 will host the convention at Birch Run, Michigan. I can not wait!!

I guess that is it for this month! Enjoy the fall season! and Fall Greetings from all of the Campers!

Even with all of the hot weather, we have been able to enjoy our camp outs!

It seems like just before a camp out it mysteriously cools down! I guess we are living right!
On August 12 to 15, we camped at Clinton Lake Camp-ground at Republic, Ohio. John and Brenda were our wagon-masters.

After we arrived on Thurs-day and set up camp, we trav-eled to Fatheads Restaurant for our evening meal. Friday for breakfast, John and Brenda prepared eggs, bacon, sausage and donuts for us! Our dinner meal was at a restaurant called Smokies. Both of the above restaurants were in Republic.

Saturday morning, it was off to Tiffin to GW’s for breakfast. Being the Seneca County flea market was going on (in Tiffin), we were on our own until that afternoon, when our business meeting took place, followed by our pot luck, with ham furnished by the wagon-masters.

Sunday it was donuts at the wagonmasters, and then pack up and head for home! Other than a little rain, it was a very good camp out!

Our October camp out is a little up in the air, as no one volunteered to be the wagon-masters! I am sure it will work out. Ellen and I will figure it out, even if we have to draft some people to help us!!

October will be the last of our campout season. Novem-ber we start our camp ins – just meeting at a restaurant for our business meeting, and enjoying a good meal. That one will have Jim and Chris as our wag-onmasters, and is usually our Christmas get-together.

If you have a camper of any size, AND enjoy camping, we need YOU! Give me a call at 419-262-5401.

The end of this month is HALLOWEEN – be pre-pared!!

Be talking to you again in November!

Until we talk again – KEEP THOSE CAMPFIRE BURN-ING!!

Congrats to Lady Heather and her committee for a very nice job on the Ladies Divan pig roast. The idea behind it was to purchase a ceramic pig, decorate it and put your loose change inside. The proceeds were given to our local hospital's wish list. It was obvious that some folks put a lot of time and thought in to decorating their pig. There were a number of new and non-Shriners with their family. Everyone had a good time. (I know that I did).

Illustrious Sir Isaac and the Divan have a full schedule planned for Zenobia, which is great. This is why Imperial has recognized us for our efforts. They are putting a lot of emphasis on Friendship Night, Ceremonial, Sportsmen's Extravaganza, Circus and membership.

Congratulations to A.A.S.R. Valley of Toledo for being recognized with the Valley of Excellence Award. Congrats also to Ill. Sir Isaac, whose name was proposed to receive the 33rd Degree in 2023. It helps to have served 12 years in one of the appendant Scottish Rite bodies, but that's not the only criteria. I don't think there have been any others that held Past Potentate and 33rd Degree status since Illustrious Sir Bob McDonald, Charlie Murphy, myself, Claude Young and Imperial Sir Bernie Lemieux in recent years.

I haven't had any report on

Fremont Shrine Club

What a wonderful meeting for the Fremont Shrine Club in October. It was good to see so many familiar faces and have the chance to actually visit with friends. The delicious home cooked meal was enjoyed by all.

Following a discussion on officers for the club, Jason Pontious shared upcoming events at Zenobia. Friendship Night and Ceremonial dates have been moved (see dates elsewhere in paper), the success for the Divan Ladies pig roast and new Nobles attending stated meetings. The Sportsmen's Extravaganza is just around the corner with the circus on November 18 to 21. It is a busy time at Zenobia.

Plan to attend our next meeting on Thursday, October 21. Come, be informed and see your friends.

sick and distressed, aside from some mobility issues. As I write this column, I find it hard to believe its been 20 years since 911. So much tragedy and sadness going on in this world.

PITMASTERS

Greetings Pitmasters,

We do our job well! The Zenobia Ladies Divan hog roast was a huge hit! Everyone was pleased with the hog that was roasted and all had their fill. A special thank you to pitmaster Steve Horton for his preparation of the hog.

We only have a few upcoming events to prepare meals for and will be discussing them at our monthly meeting. We meet at Zenobia on the third Monday of each month, eating at 6:30, with a meeting to follow. Just let us know you are coming, so we can have enough food.

Short and sweet this month. Get out and enjoy those football games and the cooler weather.

Until we "meat" again, keep the charcoal hot and the fruitwood burning.

I was asked to say a few words about Patroller Tom Garcher yesterday, at a memorial service sponsored by Rubicon Lodge and Zenobia. I started by saying Tom and Wanda were very active members. I mentioned that the Patrol was a competitive marching unit. We competed against other Patrol units in Chicago, Vegas, L.A, Canada, to name a few, not to mention numerous local parades. I finished with the story about Tom going on the Patrol's annual 40-man five-day golf outing at Atwood Lodge, south of Canton, Ohio. We played five different golf courses surrounded by trees and water, a haven for a lot of lost golf balls. Tom managed to not lose a ball on the first course. On the second and third day he was still playing with the same ball. Of course, he had bragging rights and was telling everyone. On the fourth day, one of the guys, Joe G., asked to see the ball. He promptly threw it in a nearby pond. Tom was shouting, "why did you throw my lucky ball in the pond?" Joe, who like many of the others, lost a number of balls, said, "I got tired of hearing your story." Tom was a good guy and is missed.

I just looked at our local paper and saw a picture of Rose Woodruff petting an assistance dog at the Genesis Village, where she resides. Many of us have seen her in a pool on TV. She sometimes comes to the Patrol ladies luncheon.

Support the Sportsmen's Extravaganza, the Circus and bring in a new member.
